PERMISSION AND LIABILITY RELEASE

Yes, I would like my child/participant _____ to participate in the therapeutic riding program/Camp FreeSpirit at Kopper Top Life Learning Center, Inc. I understand that NO LIABILITY can be accepted or assigned by any organization or individual concerned with this instruction. I waive and release forever all claims for damages against Kopper Top Life Learning Center, its board of directors, volunteers, and/or employees for any and all injuries and/or losses I may sustain while participating in programs at Kopper Top Life Learning Center in the event of any accident which may occur.

“Under North Carolina law, an equine activity sponsor or equine professional is not liable for an injury to or death of a participant in equine activities resulting exclusively from inherent risk of equine activities. Chapter 99E of the North Carolina General Statute.”

“Under North Carolina law, there is no liability for an injury to or death of a participant in an agritourism activity conducted at this agritourism location if such injury or death results from inherent risks of the agritourism activity. Inherent risks of agritourism include, among others, risks of injury inherent to land, equipment, and animals, as well as the potential for you to act in a negligent manner that may contribute to your injury or death. You are assuming the risk of participating in this agritourism activity.”

To my knowledge, there is no reason why this person cannot participate in supervised equestrian activities. However, I understand that the NARHA center will weigh the medical information above against the existing precautions and contraindications. I concur with a review of this person's abilities/limitations by a licensed/credentialed health professional (eg. PT, OT, SLP, Psychologist, etc.) in the implementation or an effective equine activity program.
